“On Saturday afternoons when all the things are done in the house and there's no real work to be done, I play Bach and Chopin and turn it up real loudly and get a good bottle of chardonnay and sit out on my deck and look out at the garden..”

–Maya Angelou

THE WINE RAINBOW

Sometimes we forget- wine doesn't only come in white and red. In his book "The New Wine Rules," Jon Bonné reminds us that there are many more colors in the wine spectrum; he encourages us to start having more fun in our "wine lives" by drinking the rainbow of endless possibilities.

BURGUNDY AND BEYOND

“I desire to be drowned in a barrel of wine from Beaune so that my death will be easy and good.” –George Plantagenet [Before his execution for treason]. Could death by Oregon Pinot Noir or perhaps even Gamay be as gratifying? You decide.

LES RAISINS DU RHÔNE

The grapes that made their names in the Rhône Valley and Southern France. These vary stylistically but all have the commonality of exhibiting a “garrigue” character, a wine term meaning reminiscent of the herbs growing wild in the French Mediterranean countryside, including lavender, sage, rosemary, juniper, and thyme.

FEATURED "OFF THE BEATEN PATH" WINERY: PEARL MORISSETTE

Francois Morissette apprenticed under some of the best winemakers in Burgundy before starting his own project in the Niagara Peninsula region of Ontario, making "uncompromising wines of terroir." His 2019 "Furie" is light, vibrant, has no new oak, and embodies a powerful delicacy that showcases the gentle purity of cabernet sauvignon. Not your usual cab sauv.
